

Job Location: Bellflower CA

Agency Value Proposition,

Our agency is the right fit to continue your insurance career or be your next career!

We are looking for happy, motivated people who take pride in helping others and like to know, at the end of the day, that they have made a positive impact in the community. Our agency is a hometown one-stop shop for our clients' insurance needs.

We offer competitive salaries with a base plus bonus structure. We offer benefits and paid time off with fixed and flexible schedules available. Our winning attitude is infectious and you should be part of our team!

No insurance experience, that's ok. We train the right people! Obtaining your property and casualty license and life license is just the beginning. We have a proven agency sales training program to help you excel at our location. Our professionalism, compensation structure and great team spirit will make this the next best step in your career.
