

Are you looking to change to a more stable and rewarding career?

You can have a more secure future as an employee of a State Farm Agent in the Antelope Valley!

In office assisting in providing quality sales and service to State Farm customers and assisting with the Agent's marketing efforts.

Do you possess ?

- Strong listening, oral and written communications skills
- Initiative and Self Reliance
- Problem solving ability
- Ability to pay close attention to detail and accuracy
- Ability to create and maintain business relationships with prospects and policyholders
- A proven track record of trustworthiness, dependability and ethical behavior
- Ability to organize and act on several activities concurrently

Just as important!

- Are you goal oriented, highly motivated and resourceful to achieve results?
- Can you make decisions on a timely basis and take necessary actions without direction from others?
- Are you ready to be in charge of your future?

- For confidential consideration email your resume to
Wendell.Cuffy.ndh6@statefarm.com