
Hour Ethics and California Insurance Code Educational Objectives

Overview

Section 1749(g) of the California Insurance Code states, in part, that in addition to the 20 hours of prelicensing education required to qualify for a license as a property broker-agent, casualty broker-agent, personal lines broker-agent, a life-only agent, or an accident and health agent, or the 20 hours of prelicensing education required to qualify for a license as a limited lines automobile insurance agent, the department shall require 12 hours of study on ethics and this code. Where an applicant seeks a license for more than one of the following license types: a property broker-agent license, a casualty broker-agent license, a personal lines broker-agent license, a life-only license, or an accident and health license, the applicant shall only be required to complete one 12-hour course on ethics and this code. The curriculum for satisfying this requirement shall be approved by the curriculum board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval.

Educational Objectives

The educational objectives are derived from the curriculum outline contained in Title 10, Chapter 5, Subchapter 1, Article 6.5, Section 2187.7 of the California Code of Regulations (CCR).

Ethics and California Insurance Code

The 12 hours of required Ethics and California Insurance Code education must at a minimum include the material in these objectives.

The Examination

California Department of Insurance (CDI) examinations are administered at the CDI examination site in Los Angeles or one of the many PSI test centers throughout California. PSI Services, LLC is CDI's examination vendor.

CDI site exams begin at 8:30 a.m. (8:00 a.m. check in) and 1:00 p.m. (12:30 p.m. check in), Monday through Friday except on state holidays:
